

THE GLASS SCRIBE INTERNATIONAL LIMITED REGISTERED TRADE MARKS & TRADE MARKS

Below is a list of Registered Trade Marks ® owned by The Glass Scribe International Ltd.

Rock Tablets.

Our first Registered Trade Mark. We have been hand-making Rock Tablets in the UK since 1999, and the name is a hallmark for the quality of the product. The Rock Tablet range includes products that are also Registered Designs.

Blackwater Rock Flames.

Blackwater Rock Flames were borne from the successes we achieved with Rock Tablets. The Flame Tablet's natural rugged appearance but smooth 'organic' edges reflect the spirit of the beauty spot in the Highlands they were named after.

Ice Blocks.

Cousin of Rock Tablets and Rock Flames, Ice Blocks do not have polished edges but are supplied with a natural matt white finish where any sharp edges have been ground away by hand.

WhiteFire.

This is the Registered name we have for our extensive range of hand made optical quality crystal. All WhiteFire pieces are made from the highest quality K9 crystal – guaranteed not to 'yellow' or dis-colour with age – and are all supplied in velvet lined cases.

Below is a list of working Trade Marks ™ owned by The Glass Scribe International Ltd.

Our Name!

The Glass Scribe has been our trading name since the mid 1980's. The International part came into force when the business moved from London to the Highlands of Scotland in 1998. The Woodpecker (AKA Woody!) is also an industry recognised Trade Mark.

Inverness Crystal.

Our own brand of high quality hand cut 24% lead crystal. Each item in the Inverness Crystal range has been cut to our own design, and is supplied in a blue satin lined, branded presentation box.

K9 Optical Crystal.

The same high quality crystal as WhiteFire, but from different sources. All items in the K9 range are individually packaged, and represent great value for money.

Balmoral Glass.

This is an actively 'growing' product range. All items bearing this trade mark have been hand-made, and will be supplied individually packaged in a branded box.
